THE SECRETARY OF STATE for Foreign Affairs (at No. 10 Downing St.)

We know that the Ruler of Qatar is going to Switzerland for medical treatment and that he will be passing through Cairo. He has asked the Qatar Petroleum Company's Medical Officer to travel with him. Nevertheless it has been reported from Cairo that he is going there on a state visit. This ^{Tehran} report may also be the result of Egyptian propaganda.

Qatar is the most likely of the Persian Gulf states to seek protection elsewhere but if she did it would be to Saudi Arabia that she would turn.

I am sorry to add to your pre-occupations, but this would be a serious development. What do you say about it? No doubt you are keeping all the Gulf Rulers informed about developments in the Oman. Is any special action needed with Qatar?

Your telegram No. 1396: Iranian story about Qatar.

^{EA 10316/1}
^{EA 1945/19}
The reasons for the Ruler's departure for Europe via Egypt for medical treatment were given in my letter to Mr. Riches No. 1844 of August 8. I later heard from the Acting Political Agent that he had spoken to the Ruler, as I instructed. The Ruler appeared receptive and said that he had no love of dictatorships and was going via Egypt only to catch steamer. He would not stay in Egypt any longer than was necessary. He also said to Mr. Giddens, just before his departure, that he was under the protection of Her Majesty's Government, a position which he had no desire whatsoever to change. It has since been learnt in Qatar that the Ruler paid a conducted visit to Port Said on August 13 and was due to travel on August 14 to Alexandria to catch steamer to Italy. He was to be entertained by Nasser, but it was not clear what form this would take.

2. I do not believe there is anything in the Iranian story. If the Ruler wanted protection from anyone else, he would turn to Saudi Arabia, not Egypt.

3. All the Rulers are, of course, being kept informed about Oman and it does not seem that any further action is required with regard to Qatar.

Foreign Office pass Tehran as my telegram No. 62.
